Dear [Hiring Manager's Name],

Re: English Language Teacher Position

As a dedicated TEFL-certified teacher from South Africa, I am excited to apply for the English Language Teacher position at [Institution Name]. With a strong passion for language education and a deep understanding of cultural diversity, I am eager to contribute to your school's success by fostering a dynamic and engaging learning environment.

Over the past [X] years, I have taught English to learners of various ages and backgrounds, both in-person and online. My experience includes lesson planning, classroom management, and utilizing innovative teaching strategies to enhance student engagement. I strongly believe in interactive and immersive learning, where students develop their confidence through practical language use, role-play exercises, and real-life communication tasks.

Having worked in diverse educational settings, I am highly adaptable and sensitive to the unique linguistic challenges faced by non-native speakers. I prioritize creating an inclusive classroom atmosphere that encourages student participation and critical thinking. Additionally, my South African background has given me valuable insight into teaching English as a global language, ensuring that lessons are culturally relevant and engaging for international learners.

I am eager to bring my expertise to [Institution Name] and contribute to its commitment to excellence in English language education. I welcome the opportunity to further discuss my qualifications and how I can support your students' learning journey. Thank you for your time and consideration—I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
